Terms & Conditions of Wet Cleaning

- We only wash garments which are marked by the manufacturers as “P” or “A” and garments which have a label with the other laundry descriptions. If the garments don’t have above markings we can provide washing service but only at the Customer’s risk and we are not responsible for any damages which can occur during the process.
- We always agree with the customer when the items will be ready for collection.
- Our charges are included in our price list. The staff can change it in some specific circumstances.
- Our laundry is not responsible for any damages of garments which are incorrectly marked by the manufacturer.
- Our laundry is not responsible for any damages of faliselina, arm pillows, buttons, buckles, decorations or zips.
- We cannot guarantee full removal of stains on some kinds of fabrics.
- We are not responsible for any items which are left in the garments before washing.
- Our customer will be given a receipt which shows exact date when the service will be finished and the items delivered or ready for collection. This receipt is treated as the agreement between our customer and us.
- We have a right to give back unwashed garments to the customer if the garment cannot be washed for technical reasons.
- We have a right to refuse our service if the item is damaged or not suitable for washing.
- Our customers collect the garments directly from our agents or the items will be delivered. Customers must have their receipt with them.
- All the complaints or disputes which may occur will be solved by Trading Standards organisation.

These prices are inclusive of VAT.

(stains – please note any item that requires more than one wash in order to remove stains will be charged at 75% for each additional wash)
